COUNTY OF NEVADA, CALIFORNIA

DEPUTY HUMAN RESOURCES DIRECTOR or
HUMAN RESOURCES SENIOR MANAGEMENT ANALYST

DEPUTY HR DIRECTOR ANNUAL SALARY: $114,737–$140,070 DOE/DOQ
SENIOR MANAGEMENT ANALYST SALARY: $103,844–$126,772 DOE/DOQ

THE COUNTY OF NEVADA, CALIFORNIA, HUMAN RESOURCES DEPARTMENT SEEKS to fill either a Deputy Human Resources (HR) Director (classification: Principal Management Analyst) or an HR Senior Management Analyst position. The ideal candidate will help lead this innovative, inclusive, and impactful Human Resources Department that has won numerous awards and accolades for employee optimization and wellbeing. The County has also been recognized by the U.S. Department of Labor, CalGovHR, the California State Association of Counties, and the International City/County Management Association. Both positions will oversee four team members, champion exciting future projects, and utilize a continuous improvement mindset. The ideal candidate will be a strategic and motivated leader who is passionate about innovation.

The Deputy HR Director will oversee many of the Department’s core functions, including classification and compensation, labor relations, and recruitment and selection. This is a highly collaborative role, with significant training responsibilities, as well as identifying and overseeing a variety of special projects. They will also work closely with elected and executive leadership and assist the HR Director in the management of an approximately $2.3 million departmental budget. The Senior Management Analyst will supervise and work on recruitment and selection, labor relations, and classification and compensation, with the opportunity to grow into a departmental leadership and strategic financial planning position.

The County of Nevada prioritizes work-life balance, family, and professional development in a vibrant community surrounded by rivers and mountains. Be part of a winning team—Apply today!
THE COMMUNITY

nevada county is perfect for those who crave a peaceful and fulfilling lifestyle in the great outdoors. The county is home to over 104,000 residents and covers an area of 974 square miles. Surrounded by the stunning Sierra Nevada Mountains, this county is a nature lover’s paradise, with state parks, lakes, and trails galore for hiking, camping, and fishing. And let’s not forget the ski resorts and snow parks, which make Nevada County a winter wonderland. Nevada County also has a thriving arts and cultural scene with a vibrant community of artists and musicians, galleries, theaters, and performance spaces. The Nevada County Fairgrounds host events year-round, including the ever-popular Nevada County Fair and the California Worldfest. Nevada County is also an economic powerhouse, with local businesses and industries thriving in technology, health, and tourism, where residents can enjoy affordable California living!

THE COUNTY

the county of nevada is governed by a five-member Board of Supervisors who are dedicated to providing outstanding public service through working with the community to develop sound and innovative public policy and deliver excellent services in a fiscally responsible manner. The County is comprised of 875 full-time employees and another 100 temporary employees who provide essential services across the County’s 25 departments. The County strives to be a community where all residents thrive, visitors feel welcome, and we care for one another and value our differences.
THE DEPARTMENT

The Human Resources Department provides human resources functions in support of all county employees. The Department currently includes a Principal Management Analyst, Senior Management Analyst, Management Analyst II, three Senior Management Technicians, and a small team of interns. For a detailed overview of the Department’s organizational structure, view the org chart here.

The HR Department is an innovative and inspiring place to work and has recently undergone several years of technology and training upgrades. This is a small but extremely high-performing team, with an emphasis on continuous improvement and professional development. The Department has won numerous awards and accolades for employee optimization and wellbeing—including the Gallagher Best-in-Class Employer award in 2022, CalGovHR Public Sector Agency of the Year in 2023, and HRDUS’s Best Places to Work award in 2023.

THE JOBS

Both positions oversee four direct reports and will be working supervisors with a foundational understanding of the core functions of human resources—including recruiting, staff development, policies and procedures, and labor relations. Both levels meet regularly with the County’s seven represented bargaining units and two unrepresented groups. While this is not the chief negotiator for the County, these positions will prepare for labor discussions and collective bargaining, collect classification and compensation information, hold strategy sessions, and edit and interpret memoranda of understanding. As a leader and mentor, this role will oversee and sometimes conduct organization-wide and HR Department training and analyze policy. This position will continue to implement the County’s exemplary award-winning programs and make recommendations for further innovation and excellence!

The Deputy Director role is distinguished by its fiscal oversight, acting role as HR Director in their absence, and close collaboration with internal stakeholders, including the County’s Executive team, Department leaders, and elected officials. The Deputy will work closely with the Director to plan and implement strategic goals, and will share with the Director oversight of the HR Department’s approximately $2.3 million annual budget. They will also sit on Committees and Boards, as well as representing the HR Department and the County at a variety of events, in order to further the Department’s role and mission in the County, State, and beyond.

The Senior Management Analyst will work toward the increased scope of the Deputy Director role. They will act as a resource for other HR staff in a wide range of human resource areas, with particular expertise and focus on labor relations, recruitment and selection, and classification and compensation. They will oversee and contribute to recruitment efforts, supervise their team in a variety of special projects, and work cross-departmentally to achieve and implement County-wide goals and initiatives.
THE IDEAL CANDIDATE

THE IDEAL CANDIDATE FOR EITHER ROLE is a flexible, mission-focused active listener who works to build collaborative relationships. This strategic thinker will display a passion for innovation and creative problem-solving, as well as a commitment to continuous improvement in every respect. Diplomacy and tact are essential, as is the ability to diffuse tense environments during the negotiation process. The ideal candidate will be a lifelong learner who values close-knit teamwork and personal development and is invested in working together to champion meaningful projects and initiatives. They will be a positive and optimistic leader who identifies the best skills and strengths in others—helping them provide opportunities and resources for staff.

Core competencies for these roles include:

Technical Knowledge: Knowledgeable in their role’s foundational responsibilities, works to build skills, and remains relevant in their understanding of the Department’s technology and policy.
